HELPING A VETERAN STAND TALL AGAIN

This month, the Henry County Food Pantry had the honor of serving an Army veteran—a father, husband, and protector—who found himself facing a difficult chapter in life. Medical challenges, paired with an extensive “red tape” to services, placed his family at risk of losing their home. With bills mounting and essentials running low, he turned to us for help. Thanks to the compassion of our supporters and partners, we were able to step in and provide food, hygiene supplies, and personal care items to carry the family through.

Monthly Update

WALMART VOLUNTEERS

A huge THANK YOU to Walmart, including store managers from Martinsville, Stuart and Rocky Mount and the regional manager for coming out to the Henry County Food Pantry!

Your energy, teamwork, and dedication helped us prepare for our Monday food distribution, and we're incredibly grateful for your time spent boxing food and supporting our community.

HOPE CENTER AND VA CAREER WORKS

This month, the Henry County Food Pantry was honored to support our community partners, providing 60 pairs of boots to the residents of the Hope Center and over 30 pairs to participants of the Youth Build Program with Career Works. These essential items not only help individuals stay safe and comfortable in work environments but also support their journeys toward stability and self-sufficiency. We're grateful for the opportunity to extend our impact through these meaningful collaborations.

SPCA HELPS WITH DOG FOOD

We extend our heartfelt thanks to the SPCA for their generous donation of a full pallet of dog and cat food. This contribution allows us to better serve families in our community who rely on us not only for their own needs but for the care of their beloved pets as well. Partnerships like this ensure that no member of the household human or animal is left behind.

SHEETZ GRAND OPENING

We were honored to attend the Grand Opening of Sheetz in Collinsville today alongside our partners at Feeding Southwest Virginia! A huge thank you to Sheetz for not only inviting us but also for the generous food donation. We're excited about this new partnership and incredibly grateful for making it possible.
